

Compiled by an Association of Washington Reporters

T. A. McInerney, Editor

June 5, 1956
Vol. IX - No. 18

- The White House (IES) - Reports from all parts of the country to White House aides indicate that the President's prospects in November are rising. His deft handling of natural gas, farm problem, and the give-away program is held responsible. The only bad spot is defense.
- Capitol Hill (IES) - Walter George is being wooed by the non-sked air line which once employed Murray Chotiner.
- Capitol Hill (IES) - The scheduled wind-up June 15 on the House (Harris) subcommittee hearings on national transportation policy is another big victory for the trucker-teamster combine. At the same time, the latter got everything they wanted in the Senate version of the multibillion-dollar highway construction bill.
- Baltimore (IES) - Democratic chances in Maryland in November are regarded as completely gone with the party split in two. Only super-human efforts on the part of former Senator Tydings can overcome the situation.
- Biloxi, Miss. (IES) - Residents here are excited that a big nickel plant will be erected on the city's outskirts.
- Boston (IES) - Senator Jack Kennedy is expected to skipper a transatlantic yacht this summer.
- Chicago (IES) - The Neale Roach issue between Stevenson and Truman may be the profound split which will decide the Democratic nomination.
- Cleveland (IES) - The odds on Lausche against Bender which were 10 - 7 in April have now reached even money. Hard to explain.
- Seattle (IES) - Magnuson continues to climb in a post-card poll.
- New York (IES) - A sensational short-range plane developed by Jack Frye is attracting much attention in Wall Street.
- New York (IES) - Gulf Coast Leaseholds, an over-the-counter stock, is getting unusual attention. The rumor factory is pointing it up.
- New York (IES) - The rumor persists that the Galindez disappearance is a publicity stunt for his book.
- New York (IES) - Top editors here think that Symington is on the right track in his probe of the defenses of this country; and editorial opinion may swing sharply to the idea that Secretary Wilson should retire. The name rumored for the next Secretary of Defense is Walter Bedell Smith.
- Denver (IES) - Ex-Governor Dan Thornton is being readied to run for Senator, as GOP hopeful to succeed the very ill incumbent, Eugene D. Millikin.
- Boston (IES) - Senator John F. Kennedy's prestige and personal popularity are soaring to new heights. Conservative press commentators say Republicans should be thankful the 39-year-old lawmaker isn't running for re-election this year, because he could create a State-wide Democratic sweep.